

Capt. Jason A. Bridges
Chief of Staff
Defense Logistics Agency Energy

Navy Capt. Jason Bridges serves as the chief of staff of the Defense Logistics Agency Energy, a primary-level field activity of DLA at Fort Belvoir, Virginia, and is responsible for providing the Department of Defense and other government agencies with comprehensive energy solutions in the most effective and efficient manner possible.

Prior to his current position, Bridges commanded DLA Troop Support Pacific where he managed wholesale subsistence, medical materiel, clothing and textiles, and construction and equipment logistics support for the Pacific theater. His commander sea tour was aboard U.S.S. Emory S. Land (AS-39), a forward-deployed submarine tender, conducting emergent repairs of deployed nuclear submarines and surface ships in the Fifth and Seventh Fleet areas of responsibility.

Earlier in his service, he was deputy chief of Naval Operations in the Assessment Division as a force structure, integration and strategic planning analyst. He served as supply officer on the U.S.S. Augusta where he conducted two operational deployments and received the Vice Admiral Robert F. Batchelder award for significant contributions to the supply readiness of operating forces. Bridges completed a petroleum internship at Fleet and Industrial Supply Center San Diego while concurrently serving as the supply officer and food service officer of Naval Submarine Base San Diego. He also served as fuels officer at Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, and as supply officer on the U.S.S. Antietam where he conducted an operational deployment to the Western Pacific.

Bridges was commissioned through the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps program at Duke University, North Carolina, with a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering in 1993. He attended the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California, where he earned a Master's of Science in Operations Research, with distinction. Bridges also graduated with distinction from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and earned a Masters of Science degree in National Resource Strategy.

Bridges is qualified in submarines as a submarine supply officer and as a surface warfare supply corps officer. Personal decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (two awards), the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (four awards) and the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (two awards).
